Leavenworth,
Kansas.

Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of your favor of the 8th instant.

Any one,who is approved by the Council of this Society,is eligible to election to membership.Of course the Council must have cognizance of the standing of the candidate before making a favorable recommendation.

The initiation fee is $10.00,and the annual dues are also $10.00,a life membership,free of all fees and dues,costs $100.00.

The Society owns its building and is entirely free of debt.It has a very large collection of coins and medals,of all countries and periods,and an extensive numismatic library.

Members receive the American Journal of Numismatics,which is published quarterly by the Society,free of cost. They also have the right to subscribe at cost to such medals as are issued by the Society,from time to time.

I am sending,under separate cover,a copy of our 1908 Annual Proceedings,which contains a list of members.

Should you desire to become a member,I would suggest that you look over the list,and if you are acquainted with any member,ask him to propose your name;if not, it will give me great pleasure to do so on receipt of satisfactory references.

Hoping to hear from you again on the subject,

I am,believe me,

Very truly yours

Recording Secretary.
